Stockton Accepting Applications for Cultural Heritage Board Vacancies

(Stockton, CA) - The City of Stockton is currently accepting applications for two (2) vacancies on the nine-member (9) Cultural Heritage Board, due to the term expiration of two (2) members. Full terms are for four (4) years. The term will commence November 1, 2011 and end October 31, 2015. The deadline for applications is Thursday, September 22, 2011, at 5:30 p.m.

The Cultural Heritage Board was formed to preserve and promote the City's historical, cultural and architectural resources and to advise City officials in these matters. Responsibilities include the evaluation of historically and architecturally significant buildings and sites, the nomination of landmarks and historic districts, the sponsorship of the Award of Excellence Program, and bestowing the Captain Weber and Glen Allen Awards. A background in preservation, architecture, architectural history, construction technology, local history, law or real estate is beneficial.
